

The LECs operate an "essential facility", and should have to accommodate other ISP firms that wish to purchase access from them. Free enterprise requires a level playing for fair competition. Only then can the great American marketplace drive technology to the highest level at the best price. Blocking competition is reminiscent of the failed, managed economies of the defunct Soviet Union.